ST. JOSEPH'S Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent De Paul Croatian Nuns — 1992

Sister Marija Dolorosa was the first Croatian nun to arrive in the United States in 1954. Sister M. Selma and Sister Rolandina arrived in 1957.

The Sisters built their convent at 171 Knox Avenue, West Seneca, in 1972 and the convent was dedicated and blessed in 1973 by Most Reverend Edward D. Head, Bishop of Buffalo.

The Sisters nursery schools are located at their convent in West Seneca and also on West Elmview, Lackawanna.
